Introduction

- 1 Create high-performing teams
High-performing teams all have one thing in common - their ability to collaborate effectively.

Define Collaboration for Your Organization

- 2 Define collaboration
Fostering effective collaboration for teams requires a clear definition from your organization.
- 3 Recognize business implications
Viewing effective team collaboration as a business strategy moves your company towards better business results.
- 4 Build a community
Employee engagement is required for effective team collaboration and is best done in a community.
- 5 Gain team buy-in
Engaging a team through collaboration is more effective when your team is informed about the benefits to themselves, the team, and the overall company.

Build a Collaborative Foundation

- 6 Elevate collaboration through trust
Psychological safety and earned trust are crucial to elevating effective team collaboration within your organization.

7 Foster a collaborative culture

To effectively sustain team collaboration, it must be a vital part of your core work culture.

Practice Effective Communication

8 Encourage team communication

Ongoing communication provides a direct path for collaboration and shared understanding.

9 Practice active listening

Effective leaders are skilled at listening to better understand their team dynamics.

Boost Collaboration through Games

10 Gamify collaboration

Playing games activates team collaboration.

11 Foster and spark creativity

By elevating and educating your team on the value of creativity, you can unlock new solutions to your company's biggest challenges.

12 Build understanding

Team members who know each other more deeply can trust and collaborate with each other more effectively.

13 Create shared experiences

When teams relate well to each other, collaboration can take on a whole new meaning and be substantially more effective.

14 Collaborate through innovation

Brainstorming doesn't only fuel the innovative spark; it can also be a building block for teamwork.

Create Your Collaboration Plan

15 Design your collaboration roadmap

Collaboration looks different across different teams, so tailor your collaboration plan to your team.

16 Assess team collaboration

Increasing the effectiveness of your team collaboration means evaluating how far you've come on the collaborative path.
