Introduction

---

- 1 Master timeless leadership skills
No matter what field you're in, there are essential skills that leaders need in order to be successful.

Understand Your Behaviors

- 2 Approachability and beliefs
Your behaviors are reflected in how you carry yourself throughout your work days and interact with clients and colleagues.
- 3 Develop a resilient foundation
In order to become a proficient modern leader, you must establish a resilient foundation within yourself.
- 4 Make your blind spots visible
The most effective leaders always make time to explore areas providing them the most growth opportunities.
- 5 Lean into fear
Your leadership abilities exponentially grow when you choose to face and befriend your fears.

Take Emotional Responsibility

- 6 Understanding and kindness
Responding with understanding and kindness when faced with challenging situations in the external world can be difficult.
- 7 Build your trust
Trust is developed through self-awareness and taking responsibility for your emotions and actions.

8 Conflict is the catalyst

Engaging in conflict is a skill.

9 Cultivate your compassion

Compassion refers to your ability to love yourself and others through forgiveness and a growth mindset.

Empower Your People

10 Service and selfishness

Fully believing in yourself means you can empower others and support them in believing in their internal strength too.

11 Listen with intent

Being fully present without a personal agenda in a conversation is a valuable skill.

12 Uplift with acknowledgement

Recognizing the powerful qualities in others is an uplifting, supportive act.

13 Observe with neutrality

Approaching situations from a position of neutrality is an important leadership skill.

Influence With Authority

---

14 Curiosity and guidance

Managing and understanding the origin of your emotions enables you to interact with others from a loving and empathic place -- free of judgments.

15 Encourage open-ended exploration

When you fully embrace the notion that everyone has inherent leadership abilities, your ability to lead others grows exponentially.

16 Your people have the answers

Knowing that everyone has the answers inside of them is what allows you to grow as a leader and build resilient teams.

17 The modern leader

The modern leader demonstrates high levels of emotional intelligence through vulnerability with self and others, authentic communication, and prioritizes personal and professional development.
