Introduction

- 1 Power in personality
Understanding personality differences is a really powerful way to be more successful.

Personality Assessments

- 2 Personality assessments
There are myriad personality assessments available, but what is their real purpose and how will the answers impact your team?
- 3 When to use personality tests
Personality tests do not predict an individual's success, but they can be influential in setting expectations in onboarding and maintaining a company culture that is open and candid.

Personality in the Workplace

- 4 Recognizing the influence of personality
As a leader and a teammate, recognizing differences in personality is critical to developing solid relationships and creating effective teams.
- 5 Talking about personality differences
Being open and honest about personality differences is crucial to learning how to interact more effectively with all personalities.
- 6 Working with different personalities
Identifying the personality types that you get along with, and those you don't, is an important step in working more effectively.
